

RURAL EDUCATION NETWORK: ARCHIVED SESSIONS - JANUARY TO JUNE 2007

Community Learning Series - Web-cast Schedule: January 8 to June 25, 2007

SERIES TITLE: The Learner Support Model: Meeting the Needs of ALL! Hosted by School District 74 (Gold Trail).

Series Description: Today's diverse classrooms require new approaches to supporting learners with special learning needs. Teachers and district staff from School District 74 share their learning journey as they meet this challenge in their small rural district.

Series Co-ordinators: Pat Pearce, Superintendent and Alison Sidow, Director of Instruction School District 74 (Gold Trail)

Monday January 29th, 3:30-5:00 pm

Topic: Learner Support Model – The Theory

Recorded Session Link

Monday February 26th, 3:30-5:00 pm

Topic: Team Learning and the Learner Support Model

Recorded Session Link

Monday March 26th, 3:30-5:00 pm

Topic: Formative Assessment and Learner Support.

Recorded Session Link

Monday April 30th, 3:30-5:00 pm

Topic: Coaching for Success – Teachers Helping Teachers

Session Description: Inherent in Learner Support is high expectations for ALL and the need for teachers to coach one another towards meeting the needs of individual learners. Patrice Barth, Marlene Jastrebszki, and Deb Ralston will present this session.

Recorded Session Link